

10 States and over 37 Million Unique IDs

eScholar Uniq-ID[®] by the Numbers

Texas Education Agency

17,600,000

GovTech magazine recognized Uniq-ID as the Best Application Serving the Public.

Pennsylvania Department of Education

5,000,000

The PASecureID is used to identify students from birth to post-secondary.

North Carolina Department of Public Instruction

4,330,000

Links together the state's P20 data via APIs between Uniq-ID and the SIS.

Missouri Dept. of Elementary and Secondary Education

2,440,000

First eScholar customer to prevent any social security numbers collected with IDs.

South Carolina Department of Education

1,630,000

Pioneer in implementing real-time ID assignment through SIF.

Louisiana Department of Education

1,600,000

Implemented Uniq-ID in only 90 days to comply with state privacy law, Act 837.

Kansas State Department of Education

1,450,000

Both staff and students in Kansas are assigned an eScholar Uniq-ID.

Iowa Department of Education

1,200,000

eScholar's first Uniq-ID customer, Iowa is a pioneer in identification technology.

Nebraska Department of Education

960,000

An early adopter of Uniq-ID, Nebraska provided key enhancement requests.

New Mexico Public Education Department

830,000

Deployed for K12 and early childhood populations across multiple agencies.

20 Years of Empowering Leaders

With eScholar Uniq-ID, agencies can address strategic questions around program efficacy, participation, funding, and more. eScholar Uniq-ID has grown from an ID creation application to a foundational solution for state agencies looking to identify, match, and link persons across time, location, and source system. eScholar is proud to have empowered leaders across the country to help personalize education for all.

